2 Million self-employed; their interests are our interest

Pub debate: Employment dead or ?

Hi

Australian unions hate self-employed people. That's their official policy. And they've produced a survey that allegedly proves that 'working Australians' support union demands to force us to become permanent employees. However, we've shown the survey reveals the reverse. Someone needs to 'blow the whistle' on union spin-doctoring!

So here's a challenge. Join us for a pub debate. (Melbourne, Wednesday 30th November, 6.30pm) Info and bookings. Peter Strong, the outspoken CEO of the Council of Small Business, is joining me to debate The Future (or Death) of Employment. It'll be a lively discussion. Come and challenge us, particularly if you're a committed unionist!

To kick off some discussion, here are some thoughts from Dick Davies, a frequent opinion contributor to ICA. He says Australia has a disease called 'employment'. Our collectivism is really authoritarianism. He asks how innovation can work in this environment.
